6 Great Ways to Motivate a Remote Team

- Have a daily catch up. Communicate via WhatsApp or short video call.
- Use Project Management tools to keep teams focused, motivated and informed.
- Provide extra training for working from home and ensure company related training does not stagnate.
- Encourage team interaction and learning. Managers are not the only source of useful information.
- Look after great staff in the same way as you would normally. With progression plans and great rewards.
- Hire external help - consultants and psychologists can be a positive for staff mental health and happiness.